Labette Community College’s Caring Cardinal Committee (C3) is working with a variety of different groups across the campus to engage students and staff in the democratic process.

Here is a timeline of the events to challenge our campus to become democratically engaged:

August
- Bulletin Board in the LCC Student Union encouraging voter registration.

September
- Promoted voter registration information in email to all LCC students.
- September 26th – Working with the Sociology and History Departments to host a Presidential Debate Watch Party

October
- October 5th – Voter Registration Event on campus
- October 9th – Working with the Sociology and History Departments to host a Presidential Debate Watch Party
- October 19th – Working with the Sociology and History Departments to host a Presidential Debate Watch Party

November
- Election Day Activity being discussed with the Student Government Association and Campus Activities Board

Spring 2017 activities will be determined during December planning meeting.
